

DEVERY ON HIS BAND WAGON.

AT TOWN OUT TO QUEENS AND TELLS THEM ABOUT RED LIGHTS.

Invasion Tom Foley's District and Refers to Tom as an Ingrate—Asked Why He Dropped Parks and Tells Special Ferryboat to Cross the River in.

In his big two story automobile Big Bill Devery had a record breaking trip through Queens borough yesterday. He told the folks over on Long Island that he expected to be elected Mayor and that then they would have paved streets and good sewers where now they have muddy roads and ponds to wade through on their way to business.

When he got back to Manhattan, in the evening, Devery spoke at the Tammany Club, presided over by Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland. He said that the people of the United States this year were watching Ohio and considered the results to be obtained next Tuesday as a barometer of the national election.

Single tax and home rule issues were severely scored by Mr. Hanna, who said that there were sufficient laws now in force in Ohio to overcome every issue that has been advanced by Mr. Johnson and his followers. He dwelt at length upon the history of the Republican party for twelve years, and said that this was sufficient to convince any voter that all the claims of the party were not being advanced by the Democracy of Ohio, were without foundation.

While this meeting was progressing an overflow meeting was held in the street in front of the Auditorium, where several thousand more men stood. Local political leaders talked.

MURPHY AND BOROUGH HOTEL.

Architect Says He Was Hired to Alter the Place—Says Tammany Leader.

J. B. Franklin, who is an architect at 33 Broadway, made public last night the statement that he has brought suit, through Frank Moore, against Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, to recover $716, with interest for five years, as balance due for services which he declares he performed for Mr. Murphy in making plans and supervising the reconstruction of properties owned by Mr. Murphy, one of them being the Borough Hotel, at 98 Lexington avenue, corner of Twenty-seventh street, which Big Bill Devery said was "red light" when Mr. Murphy owned it and Devery was Chief of Police. The title in that property passed to E. C. Ray in September, 1901.

Mr. Franklin said that he received the order for the alteration of the house now known as the Borough Hotel on Nov. 5, 1897, just after the election of Mayor Van Wyck, and that he was engaged in the alteration of the liquor store at 328 First avenue, improvements at Twentieth street and Second avenue, the building in which the Amvets Club is housed, alterations to building at 228 East Twenty-first street and preparing plans for a five-story fireproof building where the Borough Hotel stands.

Mr. Franklin said that he was ordered to do the work on the Borough Hotel building by Mr. Murphy as the representative of his sister, Catherine A. Murphy, but that he has discovered that she was not then the owner of the property but had conveyed it to her brother, Charles.

FOURTEEN TIMES ALASKA.

What You Are Asked to Squander on a No-Return Canal.

Alaska, a land stored with precious minerals, came into our possession only thirty-six years ago by purchase. The price was $7,200,000.

Now if the elevator combine can get the people to vote $10,000,000 of their money to the Buffalo and New York terminals, collecting 75 cents a ton on all traffic, may build a canal to carry all traffic, may build what we paid for Alaska. That would be possible if the highest claims of the pro-canal advocates were realized and a down tonnage of 10,000,000 tons of grain, could be attracted to the return, who get who pay the tax? All export grain is shipped at a through rate from the northern Lake ports, where it is poured into a ship's hold, in its transit on a free waterway across New York to the tramp cargo ship, what value does it leave within the rate of competition those who must take up the tax which makes it possible for such a route to establish an artificial competition with the enterprise of the steel road?

If you have arranged to get a canal contract vote "Yes." If you haven't, there's but one sane verdict: "No."

SEVEN TIMES LOUISIANA.

Tax Yourself an Empire's Ransom to Build Up a Political Machine?

A hundred years ago the United States paid $15,000,000 for the vast province of the Louisiana Purchase, a bargain which is to be fittingly celebrated by a world's fair at St. Louis next year.

Next Tuesday you are asked to vote an appropriation of $101,000,000 to make the canal twelve feet deep instead of 1,000 tons instead of one of one-fourth of that size. No promise of advancement over the slow form of towage and the laborious lifting and lowering of loads is held out.

If you order this investment, who will do the celebrating? The canal contractors who are still living on the fat of the land, the Buffalo and New York elevator owners, the New York terminal pool and a political machine which, finding itself without power in votes, turns to the work of buying them with patronage.

The canal vote is illustrated in its attempt to deceive the electors into voting such a waste of their own money? Are you going to cast a profligate vote?

PARK ROW BANNER DOWN.

Highway Commissioner's Permit Doesn't Go on That Street.

A Democratic campaign banner was hung between two poles erected on the east side of Park row yesterday afternoon. It had been up only a few minutes when Policeman Fitzgerald of the City Hall squad demanded to see the permit. John Julian, the man who was hanging the banner, produced a permit from the Commissioner of Highways, but the permit was not in the name of the Park Commissioner, who has jurisdiction over the streets bounding a park, and Julian was locked up.

WHOOPEE! IT'S COLD!

Was That Sheehan Slipping on the Ice in a Tammany Hall?

John C. Sheehan, who was hanging the banner, was asked to see me last spring to tell me that the union leaders were law-abiding citizens and non of high character and respectability. I suggested to him that it was a matter of common sense that they were in the habit of paying the police for the privilege of violating the Excise law. At first Mr. Sheehan denied that any such practice ever existed, but in a subsequent interview he said that he could give me the names of several who had been seen paying money for that purpose. I told him I would be very glad to get the information and would get the policeman on charges, and also bring the matter before the District Attorney.

JIM JONES AT M'CLELLAN'S.

His Trust Could Pack Tammany's Campaign Fund into the Freight Car.

James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee and head of the Cotton Base Trust, which controls a compressing process that could get the Tammany campaign fund into one freight car, called at the headquarters of Tammany yesterday morning to tell Mr. Devery that he was a member of the party. He said that he had been a member of the party for some time, and that he was a member of the party at the last election, which was in June. He said that he was a member of the party at the last election, which was in June. He said that he was a member of the party at the last election, which was in June.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Mark Hopes War Will Win.

Nathan E. Mark, the Democratic National Committee member for New York, who was recently deposed from the party leadership in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, wrote a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

HANNA SPEAKS IN COLUMBUS.

Great Crowd Listens to the Senator Recite Tom Johnson's Theories.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Before 8,000 people, Senator Mark A. Hanna to-night made his first political speech in Columbus during this campaign. Gov. Nash presided. Senator Hanna all through his address kept close watch upon the issue advanced by Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland. He said that the people of the United States this year were watching Ohio and considered the results to be obtained next Tuesday as a barometer of the national election.

Single tax and home rule issues were severely scored by Mr. Hanna, who said that there were sufficient laws now in force in Ohio to overcome every issue that has been advanced by Mr. Johnson and his followers. He dwelt at length upon the history of the Republican party for twelve years, and said that this was sufficient to convince any voter that all the claims of the party were not being advanced by the Democracy of Ohio, were without foundation.

While this meeting was progressing an overflow meeting was held in the street in front of the Auditorium, where several thousand more men stood. Local political leaders talked.

MURPHY AND BOROUGH HOTEL.

Architect Says He Was Hired to Alter the Place—Says Tammany Leader.

J. B. Franklin, who is an architect at 33 Broadway, made public last night the statement that he has brought suit, through Frank Moore, against Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, to recover $716, with interest for five years, as balance due for services which he declares he performed for Mr. Murphy in making plans and supervising the reconstruction of properties owned by Mr. Murphy, one of them being the Borough Hotel, at 98 Lexington avenue, corner of Twenty-seventh street, which Big Bill Devery said was "red light" when Mr. Murphy owned it and Devery was Chief of Police. The title in that property passed to E. C. Ray in September, 1901.

Mr. Franklin said that he received the order for the alteration of the house now known as the Borough Hotel on Nov. 5, 1897, just after the election of Mayor Van Wyck, and that he was engaged in the alteration of the liquor store at 328 First avenue, improvements at Twentieth street and Second avenue, the building in which the Amvets Club is housed, alterations to building at 228 East Twenty-first street and preparing plans for a five-story fireproof building where the Borough Hotel stands.

Mr. Franklin said that he was ordered to do the work on the Borough Hotel building by Mr. Murphy as the representative of his sister, Catherine A. Murphy, but that he has discovered that she was not then the owner of the property but had conveyed it to her brother, Charles.

FOURTEEN TIMES ALASKA.

What You Are Asked to Squander on a No-Return Canal.

Alaska, a land stored with precious minerals, came into our possession only thirty-six years ago by purchase. The price was $7,200,000.

Now if the elevator combine can get the people to vote $10,000,000 of their money to the Buffalo and New York terminals, collecting 75 cents a ton on all traffic, may build a canal to carry all traffic, may build what we paid for Alaska. That would be possible if the highest claims of the pro-canal advocates were realized and a down tonnage of 10,000,000 tons of grain, could be attracted to the return, who get who pay the tax? All export grain is shipped at a through rate from the northern Lake ports, where it is poured into a ship's hold, in its transit on a free waterway across New York to the tramp cargo ship, what value does it leave within the rate of competition those who must take up the tax which makes it possible for such a route to establish an artificial competition with the enterprise of the steel road?

If you have arranged to get a canal contract vote "Yes." If you haven't, there's but one sane verdict: "No."

SEVEN TIMES LOUISIANA.

Tax Yourself an Empire's Ransom to Build Up a Political Machine?

A hundred years ago the United States paid $15,000,000 for the vast province of the Louisiana Purchase, a bargain which is to be fittingly celebrated by a world's fair at St. Louis next year.

Next Tuesday you are asked to vote an appropriation of $101,000,000 to make the canal twelve feet deep instead of 1,000 tons instead of one of one-fourth of that size. No promise of advancement over the slow form of towage and the laborious lifting and lowering of loads is held out.

If you order this investment, who will do the celebrating? The canal contractors who are still living on the fat of the land, the Buffalo and New York elevator owners, the New York terminal pool and a political machine which, finding itself without power in votes, turns to the work of buying them with patronage.

The canal vote is illustrated in its attempt to deceive the electors into voting such a waste of their own money? Are you going to cast a profligate vote?

PARK ROW BANNER DOWN.

Highway Commissioner's Permit Doesn't Go on That Street.

A Democratic campaign banner was hung between two poles erected on the east side of Park row yesterday afternoon. It had been up only a few minutes when Policeman Fitzgerald of the City Hall squad demanded to see the permit. John Julian, the man who was hanging the banner, produced a permit from the Commissioner of Highways, but the permit was not in the name of the Park Commissioner, who has jurisdiction over the streets bounding a park, and Julian was locked up.

WHOOPEE! IT'S COLD!

Was That Sheehan Slipping on the Ice in a Tammany Hall?

John C. Sheehan, who was hanging the banner, was asked to see me last spring to tell me that the union leaders were law-abiding citizens and non of high character and respectability. I suggested to him that it was a matter of common sense that they were in the habit of paying the police for the privilege of violating the Excise law. At first Mr. Sheehan denied that any such practice ever existed, but in a subsequent interview he said that he could give me the names of several who had been seen paying money for that purpose. I told him I would be very glad to get the information and would get the policeman on charges, and also bring the matter before the District Attorney.

JIM JONES AT M'CLELLAN'S.

His Trust Could Pack Tammany's Campaign Fund into the Freight Car.

James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee and head of the Cotton Base Trust, which controls a compressing process that could get the Tammany campaign fund into one freight car, called at the headquarters of Tammany yesterday morning to tell Mr. Devery that he was a member of the party. He said that he had been a member of the party for some time, and that he was a member of the party at the last election, which was in June. He said that he was a member of the party at the last election, which was in June.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

Col. Gardner Whistles Up Other Veterans Soldiers.

A "National Veterans' League" was organized at 44 Broadway yesterday afternoon to support Col. McCallister for Mayor. Col. Gardner whistles up other veterans soldiers.

The Hold-up Still in Fashion.

Under the Citizens' Union got out last night a long list of names of hold-up victims. The list includes names of hold-up victims in Buffalo by William J. Conroy, a sweet letter to Col. McCallister yesterday morning that led him, Richard Croker and other members of the party to support Col. Gardner for Mayor.

FRAUDS IN REGISTRATION.

GEN. GREENE BACKS UP LINN BRUCE'S STATEMENTS.

Says That the Police Have Discovered Thousands of Cases of Illegal Registration—Warrants Will Be Waiting—No Arrests in Polling Places.

Police Commissioner Greene yesterday gave out a statement backing up the assertion made by M. Linn Bruce, president of the Republican county committee, that thousands of "floaters" had been brought into the city and registered illegally. The Commissioner in his statement says that the police records show that several thousand names have been illegally registered.

Commissioner Greene's statement is as follows: Every name on the registry list in every election district has been verified by the police as required by law. The name of the policeman who verified each election district has been reported to the captain in each precinct. He has certified that every name has been investigated, and that they are all correct. The names of the captains in each precinct are given at length, and number several thousands.

Duplicates of these names have been furnished to the Board of Elections and to Mr. Morgan, that is, where they are not found correct, and duplicates have also been kept at each polling station where they can be examined by any responsible citizen who makes application to examine them at reasonable hours and in such manner as not to interfere with the conduct of police business at the station.

If any citizen has reason to think that the police reports are not correct, or that any person has illegally registered, or is expecting to vote fraudulently, or in any manner to violate the Election law, if he will send the name to Police Headquarters, or to the captain of the precinct, it will be immediately investigated.

The names of all persons illegally registered will be furnished to the election officers on election day, and the police will be instructed to make arrests at the polls of the names of officers or of the State Superintendent of Elections or of Deputies.

In view of the statements made by Mr. Bruce and Dr. Gould, they have been requested to give any information concerning illegal registration or attempted fraudulent voting to Police Headquarters, or to the captains of precincts, and if there is any failure on the part of election officers to perform their full duty under the Election law, they will be put on charges in the Department, but no case will be turned over to the District Attorney for prosecution under that section of the law, which makes it a crime for an election officer to permit the registration of a person who is not qualified to vote.

Commissioner Greene said that warrants issued for illegal voting and not served prior to election day will be given to the policemen assigned to the polling places, who will be instructed to make arrests of any person who is not to be served in such a way as not to interfere with the suspected person casting his vote.

That is, the Commissioner explained, no person for whom there is a warrant, can be arrested after entering the polling place until after he has voted. The Commissioner's stand is based on an opinion of the Attorney General, who maintains that when a man enters the polling place he has legally begun the act of voting.

In speaking of the criticism of Superintendent of Elections, Mr. Morgan said that the Republican County Committee said yesterday that the special meeting of the committee the night before had discussed means of stopping fraud in the election, and appreciated the good work that Superintendent Morgan was doing, the members realized that he had a small appropriation and that an attempt should be made to introduce the methods of "gas house" politics all over the city.

"Three independent investigations are being made to stop fraud," said Mr. Bruce. "The Police Department is making a thorough verification of all lists. So is the Superintendent of Elections, while each Republican district leader is doing the same. It is my belief that the three agencies will do all they can to secure an honest vote and a fair count."

THING WORSE THAN NAME.

Cutting's Reply to Protest Against Red Light Banners.

Phyllis Leveridge, chairman of the local school board of the Fourth district, wrote to Mr. Fulton Cutting complaining of the banners on the East side, which refer to the canal and the red light. Mrs. Leveridge expressed the opinion that these devices might call for unnecessary explanations to the children, and she protested against their bluntness. Mr. Cutting wrote in reply:

I am not aware of the nature of the banners that you describe, said Mr. Cutting. It is now too late to change the lettering. I hope you shall never hereafter have any reason to regret the course of action which I have taken. Mr. Cutting also received from Mayor Low the protest of six citizens against the banner at Grand and Ludlow streets.

30 BOGUS REPUBLICANS.

Said to Be on the List of Republican Politicians—Must Go, It So.

Chairman Bruce of the Republican County Committee made a statement last night in which he said that 30 bogus Republicans had been on the list of Republican politicians. He said that the list was made up of names of persons who were not members of the party, and that they were on the list for the purpose of securing a fair count.

C. U. FUNDS INCREASE.

Only a Few Thousands for Detectives Now Needed.

Money has been pouring in to the Citizens' Union for two days, and Mr. Cutting said last night that the union was close to solid ground. All that is needed now is money to employ private detectives to join with the Superintendent of Elections in preventing illegal voting.

JEROME HASN'T MURPHY'S EAR.

Devery Hasn't His Other Ear—His Soap Lies Between.

Reporters were trying to get Leader Murphy to say something about District Attorney Jerome's attacks on the Colonel. "Why," said Mr. Murphy, "I don't pay any more attention to Jerome than I do to Devery."

CAMPBELL IN A CAEM.

Col. Campbell Got Back to the Clothes He Wore Just After Nomination.

The campaign has reached a dead calm. "The campaign has reached a dead calm," said one of the attaches of the McCallister headquarters last night. "In other words, we have reached a stage of repetition, for as deeply as it wounds me to tell it, the Colonel did not have on a different suit to-day than he had on the day after his nomination. It is clear that the warlike excitement has passed through their hands."

INDIANAPOLIS ON A REPORT.

State Geologist of Indiana Criticized the Governor and Other State Officials.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—The annual report of State Geologist Blatchley, which had appeared one year ago, was distributed partly to-day, and the publication of the report was stopped and the objectionable matter cut out. They accuse the geologist of inserting the matter after the report had passed through their hands.

FAVOR DIOCESAN DIVISION.

But Not at Once—The Prevailing Sentiment at a Church Club Debate.

"The Division of the Diocese" was discussed last night at the first meeting of the Church Club for the season. Opinion was divided, but the prevailing sentiment seemed to favor division, not immediately, but within a few years.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Harris, secretary of the New York diocese, who represented Westchester county in the debate, said there is no American bishop competent to do the work done by Bishop Potter in the last ten years, and only temporary relief from the press of work had come by the election of Dr. Green as Bishop-Coadjutor. But it would be a great mistake merely to top territory of the diocese and set it up as a separate see.

"But the plan is not feasible," said Dr. Harris, "lies in the creation of a suffragan. True, they are forbidden by the constitution of the Church, but the only argument against the office is only a sentimental one. The bishopric is a position that does not require a long time. The true solution of the problem, it seems to me, is not division, but two Bishops suffragan, one on each side of the Hudson River. Neither should have the right of succession to the head of the see, and that should be specified clearly before election."

But the plan is not feasible, the diocese must be divided. I suggest the Harlem and Hudson rivers as natural dividing lines. Leave the boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond, with the counties on the west bank of the Hudson, in the diocese of the Hudson or the Bronx or whatever the name may be, leave Bronx borough and the East Hudson counties. The Bronx will be a great See etc.

The Rev. F. B. White, of Dutchess county said that his arch-diocese are supporting all that is now possible and added that he would like to see the diocese divided into two. He thought Bishop Potter and Green ought to be able to do all the work.

Several letters on both sides of the question were read.

CUBAN BISHOPS CONSECATED.

The Island Is Now Divided Into Four Dioceses.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. HAVANA, Oct. 28.—The three Bishops of Cuba, the Right Rev. Pedro Gonzalez Estrada, the Right Rev. Bonaventura F. Broderick and the Right Rev. Manuel Orta, were consecrated to-day by Archbishop Chapelle, Apostolic Delegate to Cuba and Porto Rico. The exercises were held in the old historic cathedral and were attended by President Palma and his Secretaries, the members of the Diplomatic Corps and an immense throng of people.

The Apostolic Delegate made an impressive address to the newly consecrated Bishops and to the congregation. The event marks an important epoch in the reorganization of the Catholic Church in Cuba.

In consequence of the separation of Church and State, the purpose of the Holy See has been to place the external administration of Church affairs on a footing similar to that which exists in the United States. The recent division of the island into four dioceses was due to the belief that the duties of the Bishops were too large to be administered by one head.

The new Bishop of Havana, Mgr. Pedro Gonzalez Estrada, is a Cuban, as is Mgr. Orta, the new Bishop of Pinar del Rio. Mgr. Broderick will soon be appointed for the Diocese of Cienfuegos. An American citizen, the Rev. Dr. Bonaventura Broderick, has been appointed Bishop of Cienfuegos, and he has the honor of being the youngest American clergyman wearing the mitre. Bishop Broderick was born in Hartford, Conn., on Dec. 25, 1858.

PRINCE GALITZIN STABBED.

Attempt to Kill the Governor of the Caucasus Fails.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Tiflis, Russia, says that while Prince Galitzin, the Governor of the Caucasus, was driving home with his wife yesterday afternoon three natives made an attack on the occupants of the carriage. One stabbed the Governor several times, while others attempted to drag him from the vehicle. While the Cossack accompanying the Governor attacked his assailants the carriage was driven off the road and was overturned. A mounted Cossack guard was quickly turned out and pursued them. One of the assassins was killed, the second was mortally wounded and the third severely wounded. Prince Galitzin's wounds showed that they were superficial. This was probably due to the thickness of the cap he wore. The Prince was able to attend a reception later in the day.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PROMISE.

Says His Tariff Plan Will Bring Concessions From the United States.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, Oct. 28.—Speaking at a luncheon last night Mr. Chamberlain said that his proposals must have been struck by the manner in which the new tariff proposals had been received abroad. The feeling on the Continent and in the United States was not against his policy, but in favor of preparation to meet it and meet it by the concessions which he described. Moreover, he was of the opinion that if these concessions were not extended, it would be foreign countries and not the British consumer who would suffer. The former Colonial Secretary declared that it was the duty of the Government to do what was best for the working classes and the strength of the empire, were connected, one with another, and that it was their duty to speak for the struggle.

Cabinet Ministers Returned.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—In the balloting yesterday, where members of the new Cabinet stood for reelection, Major Arthur Lee, Chief Lord of the Admiralty, who was formerly the British Military Attaché at Washington, was returned from the Fareham division. He was elected by a majority of 1,000. Mr. Lee was re-elected from London. Neither of these candidates was opposed.

Italy Reports a surplus.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN.

ROME, Oct. 28.—The report of the Italian finances for the year ending with July shows a surplus of $139,000,000.

Mrs. Potter Palmer Out of Danger.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Potter Palmer, who has been ill of typhoid fever for some time, is now out of danger.

John Jameson.

Three Stars Star Irish Whiskey

BECAUSE IT IS PURE ABSOLUTELY.

IT'S DIFFERENT FROM THE OTHERS.

John Jameson.

Three Stars Star Irish Whiskey